Covenant Harbor staff are doing their best to incorporate the CDC, State, Local, and other guidelines into our programming. Practices are being refined, placing an emphasis on safety and responsibility, while recognizing the need for fun and to be together socially.

Speaker: Pastor Ramelia Williams

Director of Ministry Initiatives for the Love Mercy Do Justice mission

Ramelia is passionate about creating environments for experiencing the compassion, mercy and justice of God through the Church. She combines theology, social justice, contemplative spirituality, inner healing and racial reconciliation in her approach to pastoral care. She has lived this out in her work as a denomination administrator, church planter, pastor, chaplain, and spiritual director & adjunct professor. Ramelia experiences deep joy when running, hiking, riding horses or taking in the breathtaking views of God's creation.

Morning Workshops

The Joy of Financial Discipleship – Karen Palmberg

God is interested in the WHOLE of you! All of your life, including the financial part! It is truly possible to bring God into this part of our lives. Learn what Scripture has to say about money. Karen has worked her adult life for the Covenant; first as a pastor's wife, then 14 years as Dir. of Marketing & sales for Covenant Living and now with Covenant Trust Company as a Field Rep. for the Central Conference. She is a Financial coach at North Park Seminary for the Pastoral Excellence classes.

Discussion for Christian Women: How to See Through Another's Eyes –Sarah Hunt-Frank

In varying degrees, systemic racism still exists in our society. How can we, as Christian women, identify it and wipe it from our communities? Let's read scripture and see what God has to tell us. This will be an introspective look at the underlying racism in our little corners of the world. Sarah is a wife to Jeff for 23 years and mother to 2 daughters. She is the Vice President of WMCC & chair of the Trustee board of Milwaukee ECC.

Discipline of Trust: Holding on to God's promises in anxious times – Rev. Jill Lind

Jill is the Director of Congregational Care for the Central Conference of the ECC. She is a wife, a mother of two teenage daughters and a lover of the great outdoors!

How Can You Help: Simple Suggestions of Ways to Help Someone That Has been Abused – Pastor Karen Brewer, Advocacy for Victims of Abuse (AVA) Rep.

Painted Scarf Workshop – Charmaine Rabishaw

We will be tie-dyeing "walk by faith" scarves, the whole effect will be a surprise. Charmaine is a talented lady who runs CovArts, a free children's art program in Milwaukee. She is also a preschool teacher and attends Milwaukee Covenant Church. Cost will be $5.00 to be paid at time of registration. Maximum of 14 participants per session.

Una Vida Espiritual Saludable (A Healthy Spiritual Life) – Annie Espinoza

Estar concientes que así como los alimentos son esenciales para nuestra nutrición y salud, debemos cuidar de nuestra alma y mente a fin de mantenernos saludables; y desarrollarnos fuertes espiritualmente. Consejos y guías de acuerdo la palabra de Dios. Annie is Pastora de la Iglesia del Pacto Douglas Park, Asistente Medico Registrado, Técnico en rayos X, Educadora de salud, pero su pasión es llevar el mensaje de Dios a través del Ministerio de Titeres a niños, jóvenes y adultos. Soy un milagro de Dios! Salmos 126:3

Afternoon Workshops

Do Justly, Love Mercy, and Walk Humbly: An Intro to the Work of Freedom Firm based on Micah 6:8 – Leah Henck

Leah is mother to three beautiful children and president of Freedom Firm USA, the fundraising and awareness arm of Freedom Firm, an anti-sex trafficking organization in India focused on rescue, restoration, and justice. In 2009, she joined her husband in India as he worked to start Freedom Firm's first field office. During this time, she worked with co-founder Mala Malstead to take an art therapy project into a self-sustaining private limited company, with the purpose to provide rescued women bridge employment.

Is God Calling You to Vocational Ministry? – Rev. Jill Lind

Hear from several women clergy on how to discern your call.

Fruit Pizza-making Workshop – Erika Varela, Culinary Arts Instructor

Save room after lunch for a hands-on dessert experience! Chef Erika will review basic knife skills and demonstrate cutting of various types of fruit. Use your new found knife skills to slice and garnish a homemade sugar cookie topped with cream cheese frosting.

Note: Not suitable for those with gluten or milk allergies. Capacity of 30 people.

Painted Scarf Workshop – Charmaine Rabishaw

See A.M. description of this workshop. This is being offered twice to allow more women the opportunity to enjoy tie-dyeing "walk by faith" scarves.

The Hymnal: Your Family Album – Sharon Whitlock

The church hymnal is filled with inspiring and beautiful messages by "the great cloud of witnesses." We'll work in small groups on several activities to learn about our "family" of hymn writers and how their work can help us grow in our faith. Sharon is a popular accompanist for soloists, always playing soli Deo gloria! She works full time as a medical technologist (microbiology).

Poniendo Las Piezas Juntas (Putting the Pieces Together) – Diaria Ulin

La vida puede ser como un rompecabezas, cuando tratamos de forzar partes de nuestra vida nuestros corazones se doblan, y a veces se rompen. Cyab=ndo encontramos las piezas que encajan, la alegría de ver la image que emerge es hermosa. Diaria pastora asociada de Iglesia del Pacto Belen graduada de CHET con certificaciones en consejería cristiana y matrimonial, trabajando en el campo de Educación prescolar

Spiritual Direction Conversations

Available during free time. Spiritual Direction is a spiritual practice in which persons seek to deepen their awareness of God's presence and work in their life with the help of another. In these individual conversations, one is listened to deeply and what is shared is held in confidence. This can be helpful in times of transition, loss, seeking discernment and wondering where God is in the midst of one's life or situation. 30 minute sessions will be available and facilitated by trained spiritual directors. $25 is payable with your registration.
